IGNITION

7th EDITION: MAY 5 - JUNE 11, 2011

The Leonard & Bina Ellen Art Gallery is currently accepting project proposals from students in the MFA Studio Arts program for its annual exhibition IGNITION. This exhibition provides a unique opportunity to present critical and experimental work in the context of a professional gallery with a national and international profile.

This year, first year students are also eligible to apply.

The exhibition will feature the work of up to 7 students, selected by an external curator or critic and the Ellen Gallery's Director.

The work or project submitted must be a new production (produced within the last 12 months), which has not been exhibited before in Montreal.

Proposals for non-gallery-based projects or performance works are welcome.
Past IGNITION participants are not eligible.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS: FRIDAY FEBRUARY 18, 6 PM
SELECTED ARTISTS WILL BE NOTIFIED BY FRIDAY MARCH 18

Submissions must include the following information:

Full name, address, phone number, email, and level of graduate studies

A one-page artist statement

A description of the proposed project. (Please note: the Gallery has limited audio-visual resources.

In some cases, students may be asked to provide their own audio-visual equipment.)

15 jpg images (max.) on CD, and/or compilation DVD of previous and/or proposed work
(visuals must be Mac compatible, video in Quick Time format).

Submissions should be marked IGNITION 7 on the envelope, and left at the Gallery's reception desk.

Proposals sent by email will not be accepted.
